

MMEA 2009 HIGH SCHOOL & COLLEGIATE STUDENT COMPOSITION CONTEST

The contest is open to all Minnesota students (High School through Undergraduate College) whose teachers are members of the Minnesota Music Educators Association OR collegiate students who are members of their Collegiate MENC Chapter. Each composition must be the student's own work. Teachers are allowed to advise only. The judges are members of the American Composers Forum, and the judge's decision is final.

The first place winner in each Contest Level and Division will receive a certificate and an invitation to perform the composition at the MMEA Midwinter Clinic, February 12, 2010. The overall winner will receive a certificate and computer composition software.

Contest Levels

- LEVEL I High School
- LEVEL II Collegiate (undergraduate)

Contest Divisions

- 1. Instrumental solo
- 2. Vocal solo
- 3. Choir
- 4. Instrumental ensemble
- 5. Chamber group (2-6 voices or instruments; may be choral, inst, or mixed)
- 6. Other

Rules for Entering

1. Each composition must be submitted in a clear, handwritten or computer print-out manuscript.
2. Each composition must be accompanied by a recording of the composition. A recording generated by computer software is acceptable. The recording is for reference only, and need not be performed by the composer. Judging will be based on the manuscript. Each recording label must include the name of composer, title of the composition, and school name.
3. If you want the manuscript and recording returned, you must include a self-addressed, stamped envelope large enough large to hold the recordings and manuscripts. No responsibility is assumed for loss of manuscripts or recordings.
4. Entries must be postmarked no later than June 10, 2009.
5. Payment of $5.00 for each composition must be sent with the manuscript and recording. Cash or check will be accepted.
